

Candle to You

Written by: Zach Blair, Rick Huckaby and Rick Blair

If you were a feeling, you'd be blue sky diving
Cause you've got me falling, but it feels like flying
If my heart, was a box, full of vinyl rock n roll,
Just in case, you didn't know,
Girl you'd be my Abbey Road

Chorus

I know there's four billion other girls in the world, yes I do,
But not a single one of them could ever hold a candle to you,
Hold a candle to you.

If I were a book, you'd be words on my pages
If you were my last dollar, girl I'd save it
Anytime, anyplace, anywhere without you
Is like looking at the ocean from a room without a view

Chorus

I know there's four billion other girls in the world, yes I do,
But not a single one of them could ever hold a candle to you,
Hold a candle to you.

Anytime, anyplace, anywhere without you
Is like looking at the ocean from a room without a view

I know there's four billion other girls in the world, yes I do
But not a single one of them could ever hold a candle to you,
Hold a candle to you
